Letter no: 4964 of the 23.3.04 from the Rev Comr in Mysore and letter no: 5553 & 3.5.04 from the Dy Comr, Tumkur both on the subject of purchasing Typewriters.

The Dy Comr, Bangalore District, proposes to buy a Typewriter for Rs 350/- for the use of his office and to grant an allowance to one of his office establishment for typewriting, both the charges being met from the office contingencies. He also states that sanction has long ago been accorded to the purchase of a Typewriter for the Mysore District. The Rev: Comr supports the Dy Comr's proposal as regards the purchase of the Typewriter, but, with respect to granting allowance to a typewriting clerk, he states that it is not usual.

The question is whether both the proposals of the Dy Comr may be sanctioned the precedent referred to by the Dy Com

SIR,

I have the honour to forward herewith for the orders of Government, letter No. 356 dated 11th February 1904 from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, requesting sanction for the purchase of a Typewriter at a cost of Rs 350 and for the grant of a monthly allowance of Rs 10 to the clerk that will type write, and proposing that the expenditure may be met from the "Contingencies," and to recommend that the purchase of a typewriter may be sanctioned. Sir,

I have the honor to state that the present scale of the English Department fixed many years ago to suit the requirements of those times is quite inadequate to keep pace with the ever increasing work of the Department and so the use of a Type writer will not only facilitate the despatch of work in the Department but also relieve, to a great measure, the strain

now felt by the present Staff. I have come to know that a similar sanction was long ago accorded to the Mysore District

There being at present on the establishment of this Office, an official who holds a certificate for having received a training in typewriting, there is no necessity to employ a separate hand for it and it is enough if an allowance of Rs 10/ a month is sanctioned to him to be met from the Contingencies.

I therefore request that sanction may be accorded for the purchase of a Type writer for Rs 350/ and odd from the Contingent allotment and also for a monthly allowance of Rs 10/- to the said official who will be in charge of it.

I have the honor to be,

Sir
